The No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLB) requires each local education agency (LEA) to publicly report progress of the LEA toward meeting the highly qualified (HQ) teacher requirements.

To be HQ, a teacher must have:

- A Bachelor's degree
- Full State Certification
- Competency demonstrated in the core academic subject taught
- Meet the Requirements of HOUSE (high, objective, uniform standard of evaluations for experienced teachers-as documented by June 1, 2007)

The reporting of Highly Qualified teachers changed beginning with the 2007-2008 school year and is now completed in October at the start of the year rather than at the end of the school year in June.
